Children's Shoes Are Important Part of Their Easter Outfit

Not the least important part of the new spring ensemble is the shoes.

This is true, even of children's outfits. Indeed, it is doubly important to be sure youngsters' shoes fit well, as well as being good looking and "like those of the other kids." Little feet are tender, and if they are given shoes that are roomy without being slipshod, long enough, and with low, comfortable heels, they will be much less likely to develop foot troubles later on in life.

We are showing you some new spring shoes for the little folk. They are day long shoes, to be worn from outdoor play hours until dinner time.

At the top is a T-strap white jumper calf — a summer favorite softest. It is perforated at the top, with graduated porthole perforations on the vamp.

Shoes Air-Conditioned
In the middle is a tongue shoe of nord grain in the outdoor cubana color, with grouped perforations. Cutouts air-condition the design, as it were, and the foxing effect of the quarters are "different."

Also in the middle is an open-heel shoe of marine blue leather, which has alternating sections of the plain and perforated, with a bow collar band of perforations.

At the lower left is a sandal in jet black diamond patent leather. Concentrated perforations trim this practical sandal with peckaboo toe cutouts.

The sandal at the lower right is in sugar white diamond patent leather, which features such new style points as an anklet strap, window openings and D'Orsay side-line, with wide front strap.

Sandals preferred for tailored slacks and shorts. White is "tops," followed by natural and beige, light blue, yellow, pale pink and light navy.

The WOMAN'S LOOKOUT

By CLAIRE BURNS

HORSE SENSE—

HELEN ROWLAND writes a breezy column daily in the Detroit Times. Here is a sample:

When one of the young sophisticates assures you that love is a racket and marriage is out of date, just ask him to name 10 famous women-haters who have helped to make History.

To marry in haste, may be gambling with your happiness; but it is far safer than waiting until your Prince Charming's pockets are well-lined and the lining of his stomach is worn out.

When a masterful man marries a managing woman, the angels weep—and stuff cotton in their ears.

Hot-towel-packs may iron out all the wrinkles in the face; but the wrinkles in a bad disposition will show right through the smoothest epidermis.

Flattering a man is much like making a chocolate layer cake for a small boy. In either case, you just can't spread the goo on too thick.

No matter how highly polished a man's manners before marriage, somehow they gradually acquire the usual "dull finish" after a few years of domesticity—in which he is no longer inspired to shine.

Occasionally, a man actually enjoys eating the things that are good for him; but they have not half the tempting flavor they would have if the doctor had listed them as "forbidden."

Many a husband is merely the "Christmas Supplement" to the household, which reminds the family that another year has gone around.

A man is awfully modest when he assumes that a box of orchids and a telephone call can take his place in a girl's life on Christmas Day.

FATHER'S DAY OF REST—

"Sunday is my day of rest
And so, relaxing too—
The children wake me up at six
The little darlings do!"

"Then there are lots of home-y jobs.
Saved up all week for me—
I mow and rake and mend and paint
For hours, merrily!"

"Just when I'm through the dear in-laws
To our front door are led—
They always stay to dinner too,
And past our time for bed."

"On Saturdays my office seems
A slave's poor hole at best—
On Mondays, I'm convinced it's just
A perfect place to rest!"

WASHING IS EASY WHEN YOU KNOW—

In our country where many ladies are obliged to wash in the kitchen a proper set up and proper equipment will save a lot of real hard work. Set your bench containing two tubs, square if possible, right close to your sink, your washer in the centre behind them. In the right hand tub put your clean rinse water (warm if possible). In the left hand tub put your blue water, if you use blueing, otherwise use a second rinsing water. Always use two rinses waters or one rinse and blueing water with any washer. Fill your washer with water so hot it is uncomfortable to your hand. In your washer always use a flake soap or soap chips, if you prefer bar soap shave same and dissolve it thoroughly before placing in the machine. Now start your washer and add the soap and do not be stingy with it. Right at this stage most ladies will state positively if you use hot water you will set the dirt in any clothes. Let us correct this myth. Factory tests have definitely proven that if the agitator has been started and the water is in movement you may drop clothes in without the slightest danger of setting dirt or stains even in boiling water. Try it on your next washing.

Put in only enough clothes in any washer that the agitator may create plenty of free movement and do not overload. Five minutes free movement will do a better job than 20 minutes where water and soap cannot be fully flushed through the clothes. After six minutes in a modern washer following these directions your first batch can be run into the rinse tub. Immediately start your agitator and fill the washer with its second load swing your wringer between the two rinses tubs and thoroughly rinsing your clothes, run into the second rinse or blue water. Swing your wringer again and run through into the basket you have set next your washer on the left side. When you have completed these two operations your second tub in the water is finished. Just stop the agitator, swing your wringer and repeat. Fifty pounds of dry clothes may be handled in an hour, which is a huge family washing.

The above directions for proper use of a modern washing machine are all laboratory tested. There is no need to soak or rub or boil clothes no matter how soiled and 20 minutes is not needed in a good washer. Change your first rinse water after it gets soapy, add hot water and more soap in your washer after the fourth tubful. There is no need to change your water in a washer if you change your rinse waters. Follow these directions once and without prejudice. Examine your snow white clothes and you will find the method easy on yourself, on the clothes and your big washing will be done in an hour.

Release your wringer tension for woollens or any animal fibre cloth, tighten for silks and cottons.

SALLY'S SALLIES

A woman would rather two-faced than be double-chinned.

SHOW CATHEDRAL MADE OF SUGAR

One of the most interesting exhibits at the National Flower and Garden Show was the giant model of Westminster Abbey done in sugar. This remarkable fairylake Abbey is the work of Cyrielle du Muyl, Pastry Chef at the Stevens Hotel, Chicago. The most amazing thing about this model, and which is causing considerable comment is the minuteness and perfection of detail. From the carved figures above the main doorway to the minarets atop, every detail is faithfully reproduced with unbelievable accuracy.

My Neighbor's DILL SEED PACKET

By HOLLIS

My neighbor over the way has developed a passion for Dill Pickles. She is planning to put up a good batch in the Fall and by way of making a beginning invested in a 5c packet of Dill Seed. A whole packet would be too much for her small garden so she gave me half the seeds. She's always giving something — a good-hearted soul, Miss Mallow, even if she isn't married.

I responded with some of my freshly baked date jumbles. Joel and the children like them, and they are nice to have on hand to serve with a cup of tea in the afternoon.

That Dill Seed gave me an idea. I'm going to start an herb garden! On a very small scale, of course, and close by the kitchen door where I can tend it and enjoy it. There's that empty space along the drive where the roses and chrysanthemums were winter-killed two years ago and had to be taken out.

We already have sage, mint, southernwood and "Old Man", which the children love for its clean pungent smell. And why not move some parsley up here too, where it would be handy? Might as well have everything in one place instead of scattered all over the lot.

I've tried for years to get Lemon Thyme started from seed but so far without results. I shall try once more. Joel tells of the Lemon Thyme and the Rosemary bushes that grew in his grandmother's garden in England. I fear the Rosemary is quite beyond our climate. Has anyone seen Sweet Mary growing in gardens lately? Everybody had a bed of it and of striped grass when I was a little girl.

All the family will laugh, I know, but I'm going to dig up some catnip roots and plant them in the herb garden for the benefit of our friends who keep indoor cats. Our Charlotte can get her own. There are no restrictions on her comings and goings so long as she's in the house by bed-time. She keeps the place cleared of rats.

ISN'T IT THE TRUTH

Behold! The lodge lodgeth together and they eat. The club clubeth together and they eat. The businessmen take council and they eat. The young people elect officers and they eat. And even when the missionary society meet together, they eat. But this latter is in a good cause because they "eat in remembrance" of the poor heathen who hath not much to eat. Behold! Hath man's brain gone to his stomach and doth he no longer regard intellectual dainties that "thou canst no longer call an assembly together, a quorum or even a "baker's dozen" except thou hold up the baker's dainties as a bait? Be it true, that the day cometh, that to get a crowd at prayer meeting the preacher must hold up a biscuit?—Exchange.

Recessed mirrored shelves in a small dining room are both decorative and useful and add a modern touch.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS..

Menu Hint

Hamburgs with Barbecue Sauce
Scalloped Potatoes
Stewed Tomatoes
Green Lettuce Salad
Apricot Pie Cheese Coffee

When I entertained a few friends with a hamburger dinner awhile back, the hamburgs seemed to be particularly enjoyed. One friend asked me afterwards what I did to them to make them taste so good. I said I didn't do anything special. I had the meat — round steak, I think — freshly cut for them, and merely seasoned them with salt and pepper and broiled them slowly, with the broiling pan several inches away from the fire. The onions were Bermudas and were sliced and served raw with them. To-day, however, I am suggesting you serve them with barbecue sauce.

To-day's Recipes

BARBECUE SAUCE—One medium onion, two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons vinegar, two tablespoons brown sugar, one-fourth cup lemon juice, one cup tomato catsup, two tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, one-half tablespoon prepared mustard, one-half cup water, one-half cup chopped celery. Salt and red pepper to taste. Brown onion in butter. Add remaining ingredients. Simmer 30 minutes then pour over roast.

APRICOT CREAM PIE—One baked nine-inch shell, two cups milk, four tablespoons cornstarch, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one cup sugar, one tablespoon butter, three egg yolks, one-half teaspoon vanilla, one and one-half cups apricot puree. Scald milk. Combine cornstarch, salt and sugar. Mix well. Pour a portion of the hot milk on to the dry ingredients and stir to blend well. Return all to double boiler and cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until mixture is thickened and smooth. Fill crust with mixture, using egg whites, sweetened, for meringue. Brown in slow oven.

Aluminum, though it is affected by acids and alkalis, is easily cleaned with fine steel wool. It heats quickly, holds the heat, wears well, is light and not too expensive.

One of the quickest, simplest and best enjoyed first course appetizers is a halved grapefruit or Ugli fruit. Garnish centre with maraschino or mint cherry.

Announcing that the Provincial tournament would take place this year at St. Andrew's, Toronto, June 13 to 17, and that Brantford's invitation had been accepted for the junior girls' event to take place August 29 and 30, Mrs. Smith pleaded that a little more enthusiasm and moral support be given the Provincial tournament which had been exhibited in recent years.

ENTERTAIN LADIES—

A most successful "Ladies' Night", held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evening, brought to a conclusion for the season, the meetings of The Men's Service Club of St. Andrew's Church. About one hundred and twenty-five of the members and their ladies were present.

The principal feature of the evening was a thoroughly interesting display of motion pictures, many beautifully colored, taken by the Reverend E. F. Maunsell, of Beamsville, in the course of a tour through the British Isles last summer.

Other items of entertainment which were excellently presented and greatly enjoyed by an appreciative audience were a saxophone solo by George Jennings, accompanied by John Ryans, two clever recitations by Beryl Chivers, a skillful demonstration of tap dancing by Margaret McVicar and Barbara Boehm, accompanied by George Burgoon at the piano, and two accordion and guitar numbers, most effectively rendered by Jack Chivers and Jim Caverhill. Refreshments were later served.

Altogether it was clearly one of the most enjoyable "get togethers" held by the members of the congregation for a very considerable time.

SEVENTEEN ORCHID BLOOMS ON ONE PLANT

Visitors to the National Flower and Garden Show gazed with wonder and awe at the brilliant exhibit of orchids which was one of the big features of the show. Although there were over 2,500 blooms in this display, an outstanding feature was a single plant shown above of Cattleya Schroderei which had seventeen blooms. Although the Cattleya Schroderei is the most prolific of all orchids, a plant with seventeen blooms is very rare. An interesting point of this variety is that it is sweetly scented while practically all other species, as well as hybrids, have no odor whatsoever.

TEA FOR WO—OR MORE

If you would like to know just how a "pert" makes a fragrant and refreshing glass of iced tea just read these rules. 1. Rinse teapot with boiling water. 2. Place tea in teapot—allowing one tea-spoon of tea per cup to be made. 3. Pour freshly boiling water over the tea. 4. Allow tea to steep—not boil—for 3-5 minutes according to strength desired. 5. Cool hot tea by pouring it over a generous supply of taste-free crushed ice. Serve tea at once with lemon or cream, as desired. If you wish to add a few cloves to the tea while it is steeping, they will add an enchanting spiciness.

JAPANESE GIRLS MARRY FOR LOVE

Twenty years ago, girls of marriageable age in Japan blushed when their parents broached the subject of marriage; today the parents blush at the plain talk of their daughters on the subject of marriage and love.

Miss Nippon is more conscious of her heart's claim to love and to be loved. She wants no dictation from her elders as to whom she chooses as her sweetheart.

For centuries the daughters of Japan have been marrying men from their same class and social order, and with the same financial status. Steeped in the tradition that a wife is successful only if she pleases her husband and with divorce for a woman difficult, girls have striven to find favor with the man their parents chose for them, although they may never have met him before.

Higher education, revision of divorce laws, example set by movies, and a knowledge of life gained from English and American books, has changed all this.

"We are growing physically and mentally in the present atmosphere, and cannot remain dolls forever," said one 23-year-old modern.

Until 20 years ago, a woman's place in Japan was at home. After completing a high school education she took lessons in sewing, flower arrangement and tea ceremony, waiting until her parents found the right man for her to marry, according to old tradition.

Ross was Betsy Ross' maiden name, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. She was the daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Ross. In 1772 she eloped to Gloucester, N.J., with John Ross, an upholsterer, and there married him. It was as the widow of Ross that she achieved fame by her reputed making of the first American flag. In 1777 she married Capt. Joseph Ashburne at Old Swedes church. Ashburne was captured by the British and died in Old Mill prison, Plymouth, England. In 1783 she married John Claypoole.

Mark 8:36—"What doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?"

Finding Ourselves in Service

PREVIEW OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for April 10 (Palm Sunday) is Mark 8:27-38, the Golden Text being Mark 8:36, "What doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?")

ON THIS happy Palm Sunday, or during the Holy Week, hundreds of thousands of boys and girls and men and women will be confessing their faith in Jesus Christ as Son of God and Savior of their souls. Uniting with the church they should immediately begin to find places of service for themselves, for they are saved to serve.

Preparation for Service
Over two years of fellowship and teaching had preceded the examination through which the Master Teacher put his pupils at Caesarea Philippi. They have seen his divine power over disease, demons and death; they have heard truth from his lips and seen it lived perfectly in his life. He is now ready to reveal to them the objective of all his teaching and of his mission in the world, viz: the principle of the cross and its necessity for him and for them. Are his disciples ready to see the cross emerge in his life and theirs? Can they take it? Are they following him for what they can get out of him or for what they can give in service to others? This will depend upon their appreciation of him and of his mission in the world.

Faith Basic to Service
So Jesus asked them, "Whom do men say that I am?" They replied, "John the Baptist, Elijah or one of the prophets." But Jesus was more than any of these. He was himself the goal and fulfillment of all prophecy. Then, because religion is nothing unless it is made vitally, and warmly personal, Jesus asked them pointedly, "But who say ye that I am?" That this is the crux of his religion is evident in the similar question fired later at his enemies, "What think ye of Christ? Whose son is he?" Voicing not only his own faith, but also that of all the twelve, Peter answered, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Matthew records our Lord's satisfaction at this reply and his declaration that upon this faith in his deity and saviorhood he would build his Church and guarantee it perpetuity through the ages.

The Cross Emerges
Assured of this faith in the hearts of his disciples, Jesus sets his face definitely toward the cross and explains its necessity for himself and those who would follow him. "He began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and after three days rise again." This was not only a new idea of his disciples, but an entirely different ideal from what they had set up for their master. To them it was shockingly abhorrent, so much so that Peter began to rebuke him for entertaining any such thought about himself. Our Lord recognized Peter's offense at the cross to be the same old satanic suggestion that had assailed him in the wilderness temptation, and, accordingly, rebuked it as of devilish origin: "Get thee behind me, Satan; for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men." He went further and proclaimed the necessity of the cross for his followers as for himself: "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me." Refusal of this challenge of the cross means failure and loss of life, for "Whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it."

Dishes which have contained starches or proteins should be soaked in cold water before being washed in hot water with mild soapy suds. The hot water tends to cook the starches and proteins, making them twice as hard to get off the dish. Sugary or syrupy dishes should be soaked in hot water before being washed, as cold water solidifies the substance.

DEANERY COUNCIL A.Y.P.A.
The Lincoln and Welland Deanery Council, A. Y. P. A., held its April meeting at the Parish Hall, Grimsby, Monday evening when organizations were present from St. Catharines, Thorold, Beamsville, Niagara Falls, Merritt and other parts of the district. Rev. J. A. Ballard, the local rector, welcomed the societies and during the business discussion, Mr. Robert Hall of St. Catharines occupied the chair.

GOOD FRIDAY—Holy-Day or Holiday?

Perhaps Good Friday may seem to you a rather mysterious day in the yearly calendar, a day upon which you know not how to occupy yourselves, whether to work, to play, or what to do, such a dull indefinite atmosphere seems to overhang it. This may be well, and you have found an unappropriated area in your lives to fill in with good possibilities.

Elders.—You can make Good Friday if you will, the most profitable of any perplexing day coming to you throughout the year.

If on this day you attend no service, where that all but incredible act of mankind is brought to mind, could you not profitably spend a few minutes in solitary contemplation of an event which would seem to blight any hope of mankind—that men crucified God their Creator and Saviour?

The inquiry may recall your own frailties, and uncertain mind, and move you to seek grace for yourself and arrogant fellow-man.

Youth.—I would suggest that you refuse games and any noisy pleasure of holiday type. This will doubtless make Good Friday a dull confusing day, in which you too know not what to do. Let it so be. Indeed such would be well. The world to day knows not what to do.

If you must be occupied, and you keep animals or pets, make them especially clean, comfortable and content. Take the dog for a long hike in the fields or woods, and bring home a fist-full of Pussy Willows for your friends. Make the back-garden tidy for Easterday. Let Good Friday be different to all other days. A little, well-thought-out self-sacrifice, while young, will open heart and mind for life made great and good only, by self-sacrifice.

Good Friday, the commemoration of the Holy Sacrifice—a holy-day!

Varnish, to give the best results, is usually applied when the temperature is between 60 and 80 degrees Fahrenheit. Good ventilation is essential. Care should be taken, however, to keep extreme drafts of air from striking the freshly varnished surface. The area to be varnished should be clean, dry, and absolutely free from dust.

EASTER BUNNIES

The moulds for the Bunnies and animals are in two sections but clamped together and filled from the bottom, allowed to stand and then emptied. When emptied the bottom is placed on chocolate that is spread out on a marble slab. When removed, a new bottom is in place and the opening has been sealed. The moulds are then taken off and lo behold their is your animal as large as life and twice as natural. The solid animals are made in solid moulds.

The baskets are made in hollow moulds. The large eggs that you get filled with choice tid-bits, are made the same as the hollow eggs except that the bottom half of the egg has a slightly flat service and the upper edge of it has a ridging on it which fits tightly into the inside of the top half of the egg.

There is nothing in the line of Easter or other holiday candles in novelty designs that this kitchen cannot turn but, nor is there anything in the candy decoration line that cannot be done here.

Decorations in various colors are placed on the large pieces of candy. The different colored decorating material is contained in sterilized rubber bags. Each bag is fitted at the tip end with a special nipple according to the design that is to be made. Then the content is gradually squeezed from the bag through the nipple and by speedy, clever manipulation of the operator, you have in a very few moments a very highly decorated egg or other article.

It is now possible to have any decoration you desire in any color put on any article you wish to purchase. You can take your own layout or design to Mr. Kamnacher and he will do the rest. You can have your own name or the name of your wife, mother, sweetheart or kiddies placed on any article you wish.

It is an interesting piece of manufacturing to watch, particularly the speedy manner in which the work is completed and with little or no breakage.

The next time you look in Kamnachers window and see that gorgeous display of Easter novelties, you will know just as much about how they were produced as this reporter does. You will know, like he does, where all the Bunnies came from to lay all the eggs that they do on Easter morning.

Besides the big pageant at night there will be the Blossom Festival chorus and Grimsby Young-Men's Choir under the direction of Gordon L. Eaton; Grimsby Concert Band; Beamsville Philharmonic Choir under the direction of F. W. Timms and many other musical attractions.

On Thursday night the 19th, West Lincoln Branch, Canadian Legion, is holding its annual Blossom Week ball, in Beamsville Community hall and promises to be the greatest and grandest affair of its kind ever held in the Fruit Belt.

Also, do not forget that on Monday evening, May 16th, the Grimsby Festival Chorus will broadcast over CKTH, St. Catharines, at 8:30. This will be the third year that the chorus has broadcast for Blossom Week and this year they will be heard on an international hook-up of stations over the Canadian Broadcasting system and the Mutual Broadcasting system of the United States.

During both the afternoon and evening performances on the 18th, photographers from the Globe and Mail will be present and immediately photos are taken, they will be flashed to the News Room in the newspaper office in Toronto by the Telephoto Wire Service system of transmitting pictures through the ether.

Finding Ourselves in Service

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Mark 8:27-38

By the Rev. Alvin E. Bell
And Alfred J. Buescher

On this Palm Sunday thousands of youths and older folk will be confessing Christ as their divine Lord and Saviour just as Jesus endeavored in our lesson to get his disciples to confess this.

Jesus asked his disciples, "Who say ye that I am?" Peter replied, "Thou art the Christ the Son of the living God." Jesus commended Peter and said he would build his Church.

At this time Jesus began to speak plainly of his cross: "The son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected, and be killed, and three days rise again."

Jesus insisted his disciples show similar willingness to sacrifice: "Whosoever would save his life shall lose it . . ." (GOLDEN TEXT—Mark 8:36)

SPORTLAND SPORTLIGHT IF IT'S A BOQUET OR A BRICKBAT THAT'S COMING TO YOU — YOU'LL GET IT

Sing a song of spiked shoes,
Of "Slide, Kelley, Slide"
While 4 and 20 scathing boos,
Bounce off the umpires hide.

Hizzoner cries: "Strikethreerout!"
As the batter tears his hair,
And waves his bat, and stamps about,
And sulphur clouds the air.

SOFTBALL IS IN Thusly does Marmaduke, our office worry wart, who thinks pentameter is a 100 yard dash, officially open the ball season. What with baseball news in the daily press, sport fans are more or less all in a dither, though no one as yet has offered to trade Red Horner for Lou Gehrig.

Local softball fans are beginning to get the itch to sit along the sidelines and hurl verbal darts at the umpire and the visiting players. They have already begun talking pro and con about the legality and the illegality of Cecil Cook's pitching. Even some of the boys have talked the Peach Kings into the Fruit Belt championship.

Down Beamsville way they are sitting tight and keeping mum, but rumor has it that they have a couple of new, smart ball tossers in their midst. Out St. Anna way Ernie Snyder and the boys are laying low. In some quarters there is talk of the South country lads changing their league allegiance. Then again there is a persistent undercurrent that Cocks will be doing his hurling for the Kings.

Ronnie Russ, the Grimsby Beach impresario has not been heard from for six weeks, ever since his O.R.H.A. team ceased to exist. It's an even money bet that Ronnie will be on the job when the right time for argument comes around.

Over on Hamilton Beach the executive behind the Beaches champions, have been organized for over three weeks. They have high aspirations of playing in the Fruit Belt league this season. Maybe. From where I sit I believe the league officials will turn thumbs down on this proposition. It would be in the best interests of the league to do so.

Stoney Creek officials have not been heard from as yet, and this is rather strange, as they are generally one of the first outfits in the district to get organized.

Taking things by and large, it looks like the local league will be much the same as in years gone by. Smithville will not likely be in the group, but there is a great possibility that Vineland will be and maybe even Jordan. It would strengthen the league a whole lot if they did come in.

Just what the Peach Kings officials are intending doing is not known. Cammy Millyard and Honey Shelton are as communicative as a barrel of oysters. One thing is sure, they have all of last year's team intact with the exception of Big Boy Sinclair. They also have the addition of Buck Timmins of Stratford and Doug. Robbie of Dunnville who come to town with fair kind of reputations as softball jugglers, but neither one of them is a pitcher and pitchers are what the Kings need. They still have Hammy Fox but Ham. cannot carry the whole burden, so there the matter rests.

MADE 80 RUNS The man who knocked in 80 runs in one baseball game died the other day. He was Edward S. Hawley, one of Buffalo's grand old men. He was 91 years old, records the New York Sun, explaining that they don't play professional baseball nowadays the way they played it when he was shortstop on the Niagaras, pride of Buffalo. Mel Ott, of the present-day Giants was acclaimed as the boy wonder when he was signed up by John McGraw at 16. But he was the second boy wonder. Edward S. Hawley of Buffalo was the first. At that same age he was rated as about the best shortstop in the country. On the offence—well, knocking in 80 runs in one game tells the story. That was against the Columbias, and the final score was 210 to 8. Of the 210 runs, Hawley scored 28 himself.

Here is how they don't play baseball the way they used to in Mr. Hawley's own records, spoken in an interview two years ago.

"We didn't wear gloves, and the ball was just the same as the rabbit ball of today—faster if anything. They don't need gloves to day. They're getting soft. Why, even our catchers then didn't use any gloves. I can remember one day when Johnny Sage, our catcher, had his finger-nail torn off by a foul tip. He shook the blood from his fingers, rubbed it in the loose dirt at the plate and signalled for the game to go on."

The batter had the privilege of asking for the type of pitch he wanted to hit. If he wanted one on the outside, he indicated it to the umpire who passed the information on to the opposing pitcher. Unless the ball crossed the plate at approximately the spot requested the batter was not required to take a swing at it.

The pitchers usually heaved a roundhouse, a sort of underhand swing, and in some training camps the hurlers were required to throw the ball through a ring suspended from a rope. If they could master that trick, they had control. The Niagaras wore uniforms which consisted of long pants that buttoned just above the shoes. And sometimes the players wore neckties. Some also sported full sets of whiskers and others restricted their brush to the upper lip.

The team that Hawley twice captained won the New York State championship and a gold baseball trophy. But the game that seemed to be most deeply engraved on his memory was the one with the Brooklyn Excelsiors. Barnstorming, they came to Buffalo. Their banners proclaimed them as the team "Never Beaten, Never Will Be Beaten." Citizens of Buffalo turned out by the thousands to witness the game. Barouches contested with lumber wagons, tandems with dump carts and four-in-hands with gigs for stations along the base lines. The din was tremendous. The Excelsiors lost, 19 to 14, and the Buffalo team became famous. The National Association offered it a berth and the offer was accepted.

RANDOM RANTS And the Old Amerks are out. They went down fighting, but before they finally bit the dust they certainly made the Rangers look cheap and scared.

a lot of tall feathers out of the Black Hawks. . . . Dunnville Mudcats went out for the year before Elora Rocks, last week. The Cats had a great season. They made a wise move when they stayed in the intermediate "B" division and transferred their battleground to the south country. . . . It is just a question in my mind if Peach Kings wouldn't have been wise to have done the same thing. I have a hunch that they would have beaten the Cats out for that southern group and would have taken Elora and then Powassan in turn. If such a thing had come to pass it would have meant a championship for them. . . . "Bill" Rooker of the Peach Pits called to the Canadian Navy last week, just couldn't make the grade on the medical examinations and is back home. Better luck next attempt, Bill. . . . Those Cornwall Flyers flew in from no place and what a sloughing they gave the mighty Falconbridge team. That's hockey. You never know what is going to happen next. . . . Then look at Oshawa juniors. Put out of the running three weeks ago by the guessperts and they are still in there hunting for the Memorial cup, after giving that classy Sudbury outfit a nice licking. . . . This hockey racket is getting to be too much of a good thing. We will be picking strawberries down here in the Fruit Belt in a few days and they will be still playing the ice sport in other parts of Canada May 1st, if they don't soon hurry up and get it over with. . . . Now for softball. Is there any reason why Grimsby cannot support a town league as well as the Peach Kings in the Fruit Belt league. A four-team town league would work wonders in one season in developing players for the Kings. We will give you some live dope on this subject next week.

TIME MARCHES ON

Remember him? Maybe not as he looks here but how would he look in a rugby uniform? Harry "Red" Batstone is his name, the same one that performed fancy gridiron tricks for Queens University about 15 years ago. Dr. Batstone is attached to the medical staff of the Ontario hospital at Kingston.

BOWLING

WIN SEMI-FINALS

G. Warner, of Grimsby, skipped his rink into the finals of the Melrose indoor bowling tournament at Melrose, Hamilton, Thursday night, gaining three victories and score of 38 to lead rinks from Victorias, Argyles and Melrose. The Grimsby four defeated W. Rae, of Vics, by 6-5, piled up a 13-4 score on J. Coutts, of Melrose, and then won by 19-4 from A. Bailey, of Argyles. The Bailey rink was second, with two wins and 28, while J. Coutts' rink was third and Rae's rink fourth.

Rinks:
Grimsby—B. Snyder, W. Schwab, A. McKenzie, G. Warner.
Victorias—F. Harding, P. Towner, C. Hay, W. Rae.
Argyles—Dr. McCormick, R. Gage, G. Young, A. Bailey.
Melrose—T. Laughlin, G. Dean, L. Hendershot, J. Coutts.

TAKE THE FINALS

G. Warner's Grimsby rink won the final of the Melrose indoor bowling tournament Friday night, gaining two wins and a score of 36 to hold a margin of 10 shots on E. Morwick, of Melros. The winning rink defeated Morwick, Torrance, of Waterdown, and played a tie with Smith, of Argyles, to take the award. Torrance won one game, while Smith did likewise.

Peach Kings Hold Annual Banquet

Consume a Whole Flock of Chickens And Trimmings at Excellent Repast Served at Clovelly, Friday Night.

When 50 or 60 husky hockey players and hungry executive members, sit down around a festive board, they soon make short work of a good sized flock of chickens and all the tasty trimmings that go with them.

That is just what happened at Clovelly on Friday night last when the Peach Kings and club officials were the guests of the Niagara Packers at the annual "feed" given the boys at the close of each season. A wonderful repast was provided and the boys certainly did themselves proud with the table implements.

Cammy Millyard acted as toast-master for the evening and by the time the festivities closed about 20 after-dinner speakers had their say and they said a lot.

Earl J. Marsh, manager of Niagara Packers, outlined the season's activities at the arena and assured those present that the big sports palace would be running again next winter. He stated that there would be considerable repair work carried out to the building during the summer and also that a considerable amount of new pipe and valves would be replaced in the refrigerating pipe lines.

Old Pop McVicar gave a review of the season's play of the Kings and urged the boys not to be downhearted just because they had not won the group title. He was satisfied with their work and it was not to be expected that all teams in a group could win, nor could the fans or club officials look for a team to be a group winner every year. He stated he would be back with the team next winter in some capacity or other.

A pleasant evening was had by all, especially by Thomasine Warner and Bob-o-link Farrell, the Kings very efficient trainer.

Argyles—A. Waite, J. Hutchison, J. Ross and F. Smith.
Waterdown — D. Robson, Dr. Vance, J. Vance and W. Torrence.
Melrose—C. Peterson, W. Lewis, C. Male and E. Morwick.
Grimsby—B. Snyder, W. Schwab, A. McKenzie and G. Warner.

KINGS MEET DEFEAT

D. E. Anderson's Peach Kings from Grimsby, guests at First United green Friday night, made things look dark for Richard Hamilton's quartette for the early stages of the game as the score read 7 to 2. The Uniteds came back, however, and were soon in the running and finished strong for a win of eleven shots.

The rinks and score:
First United Grimsby
W. Hoyle C. H. Rahn
I. B. Rouse M. Fisher
G. Ogilvie D. Alton
R. Hamilton 22 D. Anderson 11

IF THE O.H.A. would ever loosen up and let the teams in this district import hockey players next fall like the O. B. Bring on your Greyhounds would be the battle cry again.

Mrs. Dorothy Ghent, RIGHT, admitted in a Baltimore court that she had signed an agreement to relinquish her 18-month-old baby, LEFT, in consideration of "$5 and other goods". Ross Ghent, father of the baby and separated from his wife, brought habeas corpus proceedings to obtain the custody of the child from Mr. and Mrs. James Wheeler. The court refused to allow the Wheelers to keep the child or return her to either of her parents. It ordered she be kept in the custody of her grandmother.

Vegetables SPEAK for themselves

A cucumber, for instance, when grown in soil with ample potash, will be uniformly developed from end to end. If it is grown on potash-hungry soil it will be tapered off toward the stem end.

ALL vegetables will show typical signs of hunger when under-nourished and as such cannot bring the highest market price.

Do not wait for hunger signs to appear. Your crop will suffer in yield and quality in the meantime and reduce your profits on your year's work.

QUALITY in vegetables counts and commands a premium price. Potash is the QUALITY factor in fertilizer.

Vegetable soils need fertilizers high in potash content. Keep it up.

Weekly Garden - Graph

When cutting small limbs and twigs from fruit trees or shrubs, be sure that the correct procedure is followed so the cut will heal over quickly.

Fig. 1 of this Garden-Graph shows an incorrect cut. This cut has been made too far above the bud for the stump to heal quickly.

Fig. 2 shows an unhealthy condition resulting from the incorrect pruning. The bud has developed into a new branch, but the dead stump remains as a disease breeding point.

Fig. 3 shows the correct cut just above the bud. When the cut is thus correctly made the scar will heal quickly.

Fig. 4 shows the aftermath of a correct cut; a new branch has developed from the bud, and is not menaced by the remains of a dead stump.

These pruning methods apply particularly to spring trimming of trees and shrubs.

She can use both civil and military costumes or accessories of any period from 1783 up to the present day, both men and women. She particularly would like to secure a number of outfits of the 1840 period and the period from 1870 to 1900. Residents having any clothing of this nature would confer a favor by calling Miss Laing.

Six tons of dynamite fired in a single blast at Stoney Creek pond Saturday afternoon dislodged a great area of black mud. Some of the 200 holes contained 100 pounds of the explosive, John Langman, engineer in charge, reported. The robin's egg blue and reddish orange of Ontario's auto license plates is now officially in force. Friday was the first day of the fiscal year of the Ontario government and this is the first time the fiscal year has begun on April 1, the same as the federal government. To make this change motorists were given an extra period tacked onto their 1938 licenses, and they were in force from January until the end of March in the form of a gift from the department.

Easter Lily Bloom Wonderful Sight

13,000 Plants With 65,000 Flowers Resemble a Bermudian Field — Some Plants Have As Many As Eight Blooms.

As Easter approaches, we wonder how many of the citizens of this district realize that for this occasion of Great Rejoicing, a "Little Bit of Bermuda" has been transplanted right to our very doorstep.

A visit to the mammoth greenhouse plant of Lincoln Floral Co., will be a revelation to all and particularly to those who have at some time or other been fortunate enough to visit the beautiful Isle of the Atlantic and gazed with rapture upon the acres and acres of beautiful lilies in bloom in the fields. The exceptional bloom of lilies in the greenhouses are an almost exact duplication of the Bermudian fields.

At the Lincoln plant over 13,000 stalks are now in full bloom and it is a sight that one will travel many miles before seeing again. These stalks, all in earthen pots, range in length from eight inches to four feet, and carry from two blooms to six, seven and eight blooms. They will average five blooms to a plant so that there is easily 65,000 blooms out at the present time.

These lilies are grown from bulbs brought from Japan last summer and planted last fall. It has been found that the Japanese lily produces the firmest and most brilliant bloom.

Persons wishing to visit the plant this weekend and view this lovely sight are invited to do so.

Regulations Cited Re Sucker Fishing

Good Catches of Sweet But Boney Fish Are Reported—Game Association Hands Out Warning—Cannot Use Spears.

Suckers are running! Fishermen from various parts of the district report successful hunts for these sweet, but boney fish that fight their way up the creeks of the district from the lake each year.

The best catches are being made in the Four Mile, Eight Mile, Fifteen, Sixteen, Eighteen and Twenty creeks.

Officials of the Lincoln County Game and Fish Protective Association have made known the laws governing the catching of these fish which are classified by the Department of Game and Fisheries as "coarse fish" along with other species like carp.

"Thou shalt not use spears when hunting suckers" asserted Henry Nicholson, secretary of the Lincoln Association. This law has been put into force this season for the first time. Nor shall you catch the fish during the night; only between sunrise and sunset can they be caught legally. Thus, no fishing by flashlight, lantern, or bonfire will be tolerated.

Dip nets are permitted, providing they are not more than six feet square. These nets can be used during April and May, but for other months of the year, a $2 license is required. The nets can not be used for catching such fish as catfish, perch and sunfish.

Suckers must not be sold. Some success, it is said, is being realized by angling for suckers with hook and line.

Suckers are entitled to some protection, pointed out Mr. Nicholson, because their young are favorite food for big game fish. It has been said that suckers eat the eggs of yellow pickerel, but Mr. Nicholson said that the Department of Game and Fisheries this year published a report showing that this is not the case. Suckers and yellow pickerel spawn at the same time in the same waters, and the presence of suckers has been mistaken in the past.

Railway Crossing To Be Protected

Wig-Wag Recommended For Dangerous Vineland Spot—Municipal Officials and C.N. R. Heads Reach Agreement.

The Road Committee of the Lincoln County Council, Reeve Richard Morley of Clinton Township, Reeve N. D. Miller of Louth Township, and County Engineer Frank Weir Friday last, met with Mr. Noell, representative of the Board of Railway Commissioners, Ottawa, to discuss a proposed wig-wag at the C.N.R. crossing at Vineland.

This crossing, on the Town Line between Clinton and Louth Townships was the scene of the fatal train-car crash which wiped out three Thorold girls and three Welland youths last November 17th.

An agreement which was satisfactory to the parties at this end but will have to meet the approval of those in Ottawa was reached. It is proposed to have the Board of Railway Commissioners pay 40 per cent. of the cost of machinery and installation from their fund for railway crossing signs, 30 per cent. would be supplied by the railway; 15 per cent. by Lincoln County, and 7½ per cent. each by Clinton and Louth Townships. The cost would be about $5,000.
